

SPEEDBALL TEST STUDY

GUIDE

MARK "A" IF THE STATEMENT IS TRUE AND "B" IF THE STATEMENT IS FALSE

1. Speedball was developed by _____ at the University of _____ in the early _____.
2. Speed ball combines the rules and skills of _____, _____, and _____.
3. Speedball can only be played outside.
4. A ball that is rolling or bounces is a _____.
5. A ground ball must be played with the skills from _____.
6. A ground ball that is kicked in the air can be caught with a players hands.
7. A ball that is possessed in a players hands is known as an _____.
8. An aerial ball can be passed from player to player like a football or a basketball pass.
9. Teams can have as many goalies as they want at the same time.
10. A player who possesses the ball in his/her hands can take as many steps as they want while holding the ball.
11. An air dribble is a skill that used to advance an aerial ball.
12. An air dribble is where a player passes the ball to _____.
13. You are allowed as many air dribbles as you want.
14. A goal that is kicked in is worth ____ points and a goal that is thrown in is worth ____ points.
15. Tackling is a skill from football that is allowed in speedball.
16. A kick-up and a flip-up are two ways a ground ball can be converted to an aerial ball.
17. When a violation is committed, the game comes to a complete stop for several minutes and the player who committed the violation is questioned repeatedly.
18. Traveling is a violation in speedball.
19. A player can catch a ball that bounces off of the floor or the ground.
20. After a goal is scored the ball should be given to the goalie so he/she can throw it in and so play can continue.