

- Every 10 seconds someone gets an STD, and HIV can be passed in the same way as STDs.
- The percentage of people that test positive for HIV at an STD clinic ranges from 2% to 10% depending on race and sexual orientation preference
- HIV is infecting more people in inner cities than in other areas.
- 750,000 teenagers become pregnant, which translates into about 2,000 teenage girls a day
- More than 25% of the young women who become mothers as teenagers live in poverty during their twenties and early thirties.