

Date: 5/28/2018

Job Title: BSC Engineering Support

Location: North Charleston, SC 88-30

Job Description:

This position will expose a high school student who has a demonstrated aptitude in science, technology, engineering, and math to the various engineering skills and work statement that supports Boeing South Carolina. The qualified applicant will need to demonstrate the ability to comprehend the various types of work statement that separates engineering work that support all major functions for an aircraft.

The applicant selected will assist with multi-model engineering issues, assist in the business of creating and revising engineering specifications, establishing business cases for engineering decisions, and assisting with project management of new cost savings engineering projects. The applicant may also perform analysis of information in product lists and other engineering databases in order uncover new opportunities for cost savings measures.

The job will require daily use of the Microsoft Office Suite (Excel, Word, PowerPoint, Outlook). The applicant will be required to write and present a final report on the work completed during the summer program.

Required Skills:

- Strong aptitude or willingness to expand their knowledge of (STEM);
 - Science
 - Technology
 - Engineering
 - Mathematics
 - Strong oral and written and communication skills
 - Strong social skills with engineers and managers

Program Date Dates: June 28, 2019 – August 8, 2019

Schedule: 40 hours per week; 8AM to 4PM M-F

Student Requirements:

- Rising Senior (Age 16 or older)
- Must have a 3.0 or higher Cumulative GPA
- Must be a US Citizen
- Conflict of Interest form is required. Conflicts need to be disclosed to school focal and supplier
- Students must have transport to and from work.