Attendance

- ▶ Your attendance in e-Learning is crucial.
- ▶ When you miss class, you miss instruction.
- ▶ When you miss instruction, you miss content.
- ▶ When you miss content, you become behind in class.
- ▶ When you are behind, you jeopardize your on-time graduation!

Attendance Policy

- ▶ Students are expected to attend school on time each of the school year's 180 days.
- ▶ A student who exceeds 10 absences in any one year long course or 5 absences in a block or semester course is not eligible to receive credit for that course. No Credit (NC) will be recorded on the student's transcript for that course, and a grade of 51 will be averaged into the GPA.
- ▶ The total number of excused and unexcused absences that results in an excess of 10 days may result in denial of credit. The school principal has the final decision in all matters concerning attendance.

Lawful Absences

- ▶ The following types of absences are considered lawful :
  - ▶ Absences caused by illnesses
  - ▶ Absences caused by medical/dental appointments (Please try to schedule these after school hours or during school breaks as possible.)
    - ▶ Medical documentation is required .
    - ▶ Students who exceed 10 days because of routine dental, doctor, or clinic visits will have days in excess of 10 charged as unlawful absences.
  - ▶ Absences because of serious illness or death in a student's immediate family.
  - ▶ Absences because of recognized religious holidays.
  - ▶ Absences because of special approved circumstances.
  - ▶ Absences because of school-sponsored events.
